

Yorkshire Telegraph and Star Magazine, 1st December, 1908

Sheffield is having trouble with neighbouring local authorities on the question of the use of the city's fire appliances for district fires. Supt Frost wants the city to provide a motor fire engine in addition to the valuable motor escape, but if the districts are to have the use of these, the question arises why should Sheffield bear all the cost?