

Sheffield's Fire Brigade Chief

"Had a good night, and going on splendidly." That was the report this afternoon in regard to Supt. Frost, the popular chief officer of Sheffield's Fire Brigade.

Mr. Frost has just undergone a serious operation for an old-standing trouble, which was due in the first place to an accident. The operation was very successful, and his host of friends will be pleased to read the satisfactory report of his progress.