

A Valuable Officer Sheffield's New Inspector

Inspector Corlett

Of the Sheffield Fire Brigade, in which up to the present he has held the rank of sergeant, but who is now promoted under unusual circumstances to the rank of inspector. It will be remembered that Sergeant Corlett was in the running for the vacant inspectorship at Northampton, but anxious to retain the services of such a valuable man, the authority here have gone out of the ordinary course and appointed him to an inspectorship here.
